- Poochie-Bells is a proven and effective tool that dogs use to notify their owners when they need to go out.
- We are proud to be endorsed by trainers and breeders alike, and that we are in thousands of happy homes throughout the USA and Canada.
- Each Poochie-Bells unit consists of two sets of sturdy, reinforced bells that are strategically placed to accommodate both large and small breeds.
- An easy-to-follow training instructions tag is included with every Poochie-Bells.
- Suggested age for training – ten weeks and up. No dog is too old to learn how to use Poochie-Bells, they are not just for puppies.
- Poochie-Bells are handmade here in the USA. We use durable materials to ensure a quality product that is affordable, safe, fun and functional.
- Hung inside the home, each Poochie-Bells unit is designed to hang over any doorknob. They can also be hung from a hook on a wall next to a door or suction cup placed directly on a glass door.
